

DAYS 2011 – program

Day 1, Monday the 4th of July: Arrival

- Welcome and introduction
Mr. Troels Frøling, Secretary General, the Danish Atlantic Treaty Association.
- Social activity: Danish Folk Dance

Day 2, Tuesday the 5th of July: The challenges of a new decade (introduction)

- NATO 's response to the emerging threats
*Jamie Shea, NATO - Emerging Security Challenges Division
- Cyber warfare
Thomas Kristmar, GovCERT
- Implications of the new challenges
Christopher Coker, Professor, London School of Economics and Political Science
- Panel debate.
Moderator: David Cole, Acting Director, ATA United Kingdom
- Social activity: Guided tour of Aalborg old town and visit at the Guild of King Christian IV

Day 3, Wednesday the 6th of July: Africa; the new sphere of interest

- Energy- and environmental security
Trygve Refvem, Independent consultant, energy studies
- Somalia: pirates and problems
Bjørn Møller, PhD, Senior Researcher at the Danish Institute for International Studies
- Emerging democracy in northern Africa
*Rasmus Alenius Boserup, PhD, Senior Researcher at the Danish Institute for International Studies
- Workshops
- Social activity: visit to “grenen” at Skagen, picnic and swimming at the sea

Day 4, Thursday the 7th of July: Towards 2020 - and beyond

- NATO enlargement and the future role of the EU (Euro-Atlantic cooperation)
Trine Flockhart, PhD, Senior Researcher at the Danish Institute for International Studies
- The Caucasus - future bridgehead in Eurasia?
Thierry Legendre, Special advisor at the Danish Ministry of Defence
- Clashing interests? NATO & Russia in the Caucasus
Per Carlsen, the Danish ambassador to Latvia
- Panel debate.
Moderator: Kate Hansen Bundt, Secretary General, ATA Norway
- Social activity: Picnic at Lindholm Heights and an informal lecture on the Danish Vikings

Day 5+6, Friday & Saturday the 8th + 9th of July: Caucasus simulation game

- Selim Percinel, MA International Relations, special consultant
- Social activities: Various activities at the Airbase and a tour of the military facilities

Day 7, Sunday the 10th of July: Departure

*The speaker is not yet confirmed